

BeatCrave Fav: The Expendables

Of all the predicted up and coming bands of 2009, my vote stands behind The Expendables. Mixing different genres like Reggae, Rock, and Surf, The Expendables manage to make good, fun music that you can both dance and sing along to. This quartet has been around for a while but lingers more in the underground world of music rather than breaking into mainstream.

The Expendables have toured with well established bands like Pepper, Slightly Stoopid, and G.Love. After catching the attention of one of the frontmen of Slightly Stoopid, The Expendables were the first band to sign to Stoopid Records.

Check The Expendables out in our BEATCRAVE FAV series and pick your favorite band this Friday!
